

Gordon Williamson (b. 1974, Ottawa) is a Canadian composer currently based in Hannover, Germany. Recent activities include commissions from the Ernst von Siemens Musikstiftung, CBC/SRC, SWR and the Canada Council for the Arts with premieres by RSO Stuttgart, Neue Vocalsolisten, Ars Nova Copenhagen, Ensemble Contemporain de Montréal+, Asian Art Ensemble and Sonar Quartet at international festivals such as MNM, ECLAT, KLANG and the Beijing Modern Music Festival. Prominent artist residencies include Künstlerhof Schreyahn (Germany), the Styria Artist-in-Residence Program (Graz), Centre Récollets (Paris) and Casa Baldi (Italy). Gordon Williamson's main composition teachers Johannes Schöllhorn (Hannover), Sven-David Sandström (Bloomington), Bent Sørensen and Hans Abrahamsen (Copenhagen). He has taught composition at the Hochschule für Musik, Theater und Medien Hannover in 2010 and he has been Guest Professor of Composition and Director of the Incontri Institute for New Music since 2015.